INVITE...GROW...SERVE

My son, if sinful men entice you, do not give in to them. ~ Proverbs 1:10

Proverbs is a book of the Bible filled with words of wisdom and guidance. Some devotional plans are built around reading one chapter of Proverbs a day. Remembering which chapter, you read is easy because it coincides with the date. So, if it's the first of February, you read chapter one. If it's the sixth of February, you will read chapter six. I have a hard time moving beyond chapters one, two, and three most times. There is so much in there that it is hard to keep moving.

Sometimes, the proverb is challenging to figure out, but other times, it seems easy to follow until you try to do it. For instance, verse ten is one of those verses. It simply says not to give in to temptation, but have you ever tried not to give in to temptation? When you resist temptation, it pops up everywhere and is in your face so much that you succumb to it.

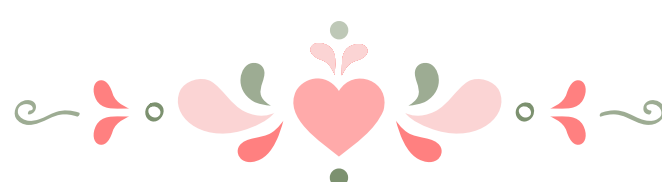

Solomon, the author of most of Proverbs, gives examples from verses eleven through nineteen. His examples are easier to move away from. One of his examples is lying in wait for someone to come by and then robbing them. It's easy to avoid that temptation, but what about waiting for someone who makes a mistake and unloading on them verbally? The temptation to wound them verbally is more challenging to avoid, especially if they have hurt us with their words.

Verse ten says if sinful men entice you, you should avoid them. It says we should be careful about who is speaking into our lives. In the paragraph above this one, we would not be around those who are lying in wait to harm someone physically. Are we just as careful to surround ourselves with people who aren't lying in wait to harm someone verbally?

The people around us impact our lives. We may not realize the depth of that impact until we realize the words or actions we use are just like the words and actions they use. Solomon's advice was not to be around them. It is excellent advice filled with wisdom. Hopefully, we can live out his words. It will be challenging to unwind some relationships because those relationships encourage us to sin. Still, with the Holy Spirit's help, we can see those words and actions and find a different way to live instead of giving in to temptations. It might mean that we need to limit our interactions with people. It might mean we need to make new friends. It might mean that we need to say something and stand up for those who are being hurt. The Holy Spirit will lead us in the direction we need to go. We will need to be obedient and follow the prompting of the Holy Spirit.

With Christ's Love,

Pastor Seth

Mastering Excellence: Seven Unique Strategies Practiced by Highly Accomplished Individuals

We all have different goals we want to achieve in life. Whether it's starting a successful business, buying a house, or losing weight, it takes effort, commitment, and planning to achieve them. However, with so much going on in our lives, it can be challenging to focus on our goals. Here are some things you can do right now to help you achieve your goals and live your best life.

Improve Your Mental Health

It's amazing how much your environment can affect your mental health. Studies have shown that living in a cluttered space can increase stress levels and anxiety. Take some time to clean your home, declutter, and organize your belongings. Explore some helpful cleaning hacks and tips online. This will not only make your home a more pleasant place to be, but it will also reduce your stress levels, help you focus on your goals, and improve your mental health.

Self-Care Routine

Self-care is critical to achieving your goals and living your best life. It's essential to take care of your physical, emotional, and mental health. Create a self-care routine that includes things like exercise, meditation, reading, or anything that helps you relax and recharge. When you take care of yourself, you're better equipped to handle the challenges that come with pursuing your goals.

Prevent Burnout

Burnout is a real thing, and it can happen when you're working hard to achieve your goals. Recognize the signs of burnout like fatigue, lack of motivation, and emotional exhaustion. If you begin to observe these signs, take charge of your thoughts and exude confidence. Anticipate burnout by taking breaks, delegating tasks, and taking care of yourself. When you avoid burnout, you're more productive, happier, and more motivated to achieve your goals.

Set SMART Objectives

Setting goals is essential, but it's critical to set SMART goals. Smartsheet explains that SMART goals are Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Time-bound. When you set SMART goals, you have a clear direction, and you can measure your progress. This will help you stay focused, motivated, and accountable.

Find a More Fulfilling Job

If your current job is not fulfilling, it's essential to consider a change. A job that aligns with your values and passions can make a massive difference to your overall happiness and fulfillment. Take the time to explore your career options, update your resume, and network with people in your industry. Finding a more fulfilling job can help you achieve your goals and live your best life.

Get Enough Sleep

The Sleep Foundation points out that sleep is essential for your physical and mental health. It's critical to get at least seven to eight hours of sleep every night to feel rested, energized, and ready to tackle your goals. Prioritize sleep by creating a sleep-friendly environment, avoiding caffeine and alcohol before bed, and creating a bedtime routine. When you get plenty of sleep, you're more productive, focused, and happier.

Find the Right Living Space

If you're a renter, it's worth your time and effort to ensure that your living space meets your needs. It's wise to regularly check your rental options online to see if a better opportunity is available. Online search tools make it easy to find and filter options by location, size, price, and amenities. Finding a more affordable place or one with more room can reduce your stress, enabling you to more capably pursue your goals.

Achieving your goals and living your best life is feasible, but it necessitates effort, perseverance, and careful planning. The seven things covered in this article serve as a starting point to assist you in getting started. With the appropriate mindset, routines, and behaviors, you can accomplish your aspirations and live the life you want.

Discover tailored financial solutions to meet your goals at Zion Methodist Community Church.

Church and Society are collecting Valentines (and Valentine treats!) for our special over-80 members starting January 19th through February 9th. The Valentine bags, and a list of Zion's "sweethearts," will be available on the table in the narthex. Thank you for spreading the love!

SCHOLARSHIP ETHEL WESTERMAN MORTIZ SCHOLARSHIP

Time to apply for the Ethel Westerman Mortiz Scholarship. This scholarship fund has been established in memory of a faithful generous member of Zion Methodist Community Church who passed away on July 13, 1997. Because of her generosity, the recipients of these scholarships, over the years, can continue their education and bring honor to her memory. Any member of Zion Methodist Community Church attending a post high school institution, university, college, nursing, trade, or vocational school may apply. You may apply twice. Forms are available in the plastic hanging wall file outside the church office. If you would like to request a form emailed or mailed to you, please contact Zion office at Office@zionsarver.com or Rob Peters at pleasegod@zoominternet.net or 724-352-4608. Please return completed form to church office by April 16, 2025. If you should have any questions, contact Rob Peters by email or Phone, see above.

Blessings in a Backpack

What a wonderful way to start the new year! Dr. Frazetta, our local coordinator for the Blessings in a Backpack program, reached out to Zion asking "if" and "when" it would be possible to purchase food items for weekend meals. Because of your great outpouring of Christian love and compassion, the family of Zion was prepared to respond positively and immediately! On January 13, $1,175.74 was used to provide enough food to sufficiently fill the backpacks of all 65 students for five weeks! A balance of $727.36 remains, ready to answer the next call for assistance. To date, Zion has contributed $3,878.64 in the 2024-2025 school year. Thank you!

The whole world has been made aware of the devastating fires in California and the terrible loss of life and property. It is overwhelming, mind-blowing and incredibly tragic! It is causing unimaginable stress, anxiety and fear of an uncertain and unknown future. The need is enormous and we, as Christians, should assist our brothers and sisters by whatever method and means we are able, but we must not forget those who are close to us who also are in need. Their voice and cries for help may not be as loud, but the burdens and fears of insufficient food felt by hungry children in our community are just as real and their hope and expectation of help is just as valid. Please continue to remember our neighbors in your thoughts and prayers and in your giving.

Thank you to all who so graciously offer financial support and to the Man to Man Class for your generous donation! Just a few dollars can make a huge difference in a child's life.

Thank you and may God bless you

Valentines Day Dinner February 14, 2025

The family team will once again be bringing a little joy to others this February as we again host the annual Valentine's Day Dinner is on Friday February 14th at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

This year's menu will feature Apricot Chicken, baked potato, vegetable, tossed salad, and Valentine's Day Dessert. The cost will be $30/couple or $15/person if you want to come with friends. Please consider joining us this year and sharing your love and friendship with others. You do not have to be a couple to attend! As in the past, there will be childcare provided by responsible adults and the kids will have pizza for their dinner. Money for the dinner will be collected at the door; however, reservations are necessary and there is a sign-up sheet on the wall across from the library. The deadline for sign-up is Tuesday February 11th. There is also a sign-up sheet for volunteers who are willing to help serve and take care of children. Please plan to join us. It is always a wonderful evening of food, music, fun, and fellowship.

Mission Team,
We are so grateful for your faithfulness and your generosity!
We are proud to include you as our sponsor church. Your gifts enable 30 families a year to get a household of furniture.

Thank you!

Love,
Rich

Dear Pastor Seth and Church:
We want to thank you for helping us make this holiday season shine bright for our fellow Haitians. Food will and always bring a big smile on people faces when they get it knowing that they get something to eat. Thank you very much for your generous contribution. We pray that the situation is changed this year for the best.

God Bless,

Zion Methodist Community Church would like to thank Karen Snair, Executive Director of AVAC for sharing details of our newest mission, The Promise House. It is a homeless shelter for 27 people. We donate monthly needs, meals and volunteer help at the house.. Thank you all for the things you do to help those the less fortunate to give a hand up in life.

God Bless You All!

Dear Friend at Zion MCC
As a result of your generosity:
We continue to provide food to hungry families, and thanks to donors like you, we have never turned anyone away: The holidays are just around the corner and your gift helps assure that we will be able to provide services to our more than 1100 clients, and give 2000 Hungry Kids Snack Bags each month. Thank you.

With Sincere Appreciation

February Newsletter by Steve Kladny

As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight paths for him. Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low. The crooked roads shall become straight, and the rough ways smooth. And all people will see God's salvation.'" Luke 3:4-6

- What's the difference between a snail and a Porsche stuck in traffic? Eventually, the snail gets to where it's going.
- Two lanes of traffic merge into one... Proof that some people are absolutely terrible at math.
- I saw a sign that said, "Road Closed Ahead," but I didn't believe it. I mean, where else would a road be closed? In my living room
- I don't need a therapist, I just need to merge onto the freeway during rush hour. That'll bring out all my emotions!
- Used to be, road rage was honking your horn. Now it's writing a strongly worded Yelp review about the highway.

To end the Christmas season this past year, my family went to New York City to see a Broadway show. My son Rob was getting ready to start the spring semester that Monday, so we followed him to State College and then drove together to New York. I have made that drive to Happy Valley too many times to count over the past thirty-seven years. I went to Penn State and now Rob is in his junior year there at main campus. The drive is a wonderfully scenic view heading up routes 422, 22 and I99. When I was enrolled, the trip took about three hours in total to get from Sarver to State College. There were four lane highways, or more accurately portions of them that enabled you to pass the slow-moving truck or sight seer, but there were long stretches of road that were single lane, winding, meandering paths that stretched from small town to small town along the way. In those many years between my education and my sons, those single lanes have been upgraded to multi-lane highways and new Interstates have come into existence (such as the previously mentioned I99. It did not exist during my schooling). The trip from Sarver to State College now takes 2 hours and 15 minutes, quite an improvement! They have certainly made the paths straight. Filled in the valleys. And just recently on route 422 they have made one section straight that was a very crooked bend that caused far too many accidents. The path has certainly gotten easier. When we hear the words of the prophet Isaiah, we often think of preparations we need to make. Often those preparations are for Christmas, but they don't have to be.

When we hear this Gospel passage, we focus on the work we need to do to straighten our paths. I personally focus on myself and my short comings that keep me on that winding, meandering single lane road between Altoona and State College. But are we missing something? We don't need to stay on that slow moving road. God has given us a highway. A direct path to fulfillment. His son Jesus. Give Jesus your faults, your weakness, your shortcomings. He knows the way to peace, joy and eternal life, because he is the way!

The Souper Bowl:

A canned soup food drive for Cabot Food Bank will be on Super Bowl Sunday, which is February 9, 2024. We are asking for canned or boxed soups or monetary donations. There will be people stationed at both services to collect any soup or money you wish to donate. Thank you for helping keep the food bank stocked!

Exciting 2025 News....

2025 is going to be a year of reaching out, inviting, encouraging, and providing for our kids, our youth, and our adults in the community to become unified in sharing the love, the news, and the blessing of a relationship with Jesus. A group of folks from the area churches began meeting in January to share, to dream, and to discern God's plan! We're excited to share what has transpired so far.

1. We know we need to work together
2. We want to offer ministries for ALL
3. We want to encourage, to support, and to cheer on each other in winning folks for Christ. In this world today, our kids need a solid foundation. If you would like to join this group, see Donna.

We currently offer Skating, Community Meal, Lenten Services (CLN). With Lent near, the Men's Breakfast and the Women's Breakfast will be held. This year, we are working to bring back a Youth Breakfast that will be shared with the churches in our community. Mark Good Friday morning on your calendar and invite a friend or two to come along. Zion will be the host church for this event.

There will be many things planned and a great time of inspiration and even entertainment!

MORE INFORMATION TO COME AS THE TIME COMES NEAR AND THE PLANS ARE FINALIZED!
